

HR LEADERS PROGRAMME RUN 15

OVERVIEW

The HR Leaders Programme (HRLP) is dedicated to deepening the understanding of Asia-specific human capital issues in the context of disruptions that businesses in a globalising Asia are facing.

The programme is intended to develop future-ready HR leaders with the ability to execute human capital strategies which not only proactively align to the business strategy, but strike the right balance, given the diversity and complexity of Asia's regulatory and business landscape and workforce dynamics.
